NEW FLOORCOVERING ADHESIVES FROM ARDEX

All of our new technically advanced floorcovering adhesives have very low odour, are solvent free and high yield with excellent application properties whilst being at a price point that offers incredible value for money, especially with our introductory promotional discount which runs until 31st October 2004.

The ARDEX Group have harnessed over thirty years experience in the development and manufacture of floorcovering adhesives to create a brand new range of 5 floorcovering adhesives specifically designed for the UK market. Innovative new developments in the chemistry and working characteristics have led to patent applications by ARDEX for several of the new adhesives within the range.

Each product delivers advanced solutions to the applications they are designed for, while all ARDEX floorcovering adhesives are totally compatible with existing ARDEX fast track screeds, levelling compounds and DPMs. This means complete piece of mind that you are working with an integrated system* of quality products and services.

That's got to be good news all round.

*With the launch of new floorcovering adhesives ARDEX now offer a complete range of products including screeds, levelling compounds and DPMs suitable for all types of commercial flooring applications. We call this SYSTEM ARDEX – a system of high quality, totally compatible products matched to unparalleled technical and field support.
